

Here's Where To Party This Weekend Even If You're Not Interested In F1

Karen Fong
6 Sep 2017

You don't have to watch the races to enjoy the parties.

Let's be honest, as much as the Singapore Grand Prix has become a fixture for the last ten years, not all of us are into the actual racing right? If you're not so keen on the actual track experience, perhaps some of the fringe parties will be more in your lane (bad pun intended).

More from CLEO:

5 Hot Wedding Trends That Every Bride Will Love

The Different Between Being With Someone For 2 Months And 2 Years

Singapore's Hottest Bartenders Share Their Cocktail Recipes

Whether you want to be near the action or not, every bar, hotel and restaurant in this city is going to be going through F1 fever, so it won't be hard to pick something you like – near or far from the action. Here's a few key options to suss out:

Smoke & Mirrors

If you're interested in checking out the race, even just a little bit, head over to Smoke & Mirrors on Friday, 15 September which gives you a view of the track in front of the Padang (though you won't be able to catch a free glimpse of the concerts from here, the stage will be blocking your view!).

The indoor lounge is priced at $98++ per person and includes three free drinks from a selection of house wine, draft beer, Lanson Champagne and Aperol Spumante cocktails. Limited outdoor tables are still available with a minimum spend per person of $128++.

Detroit Renaissance [®] ^x

$1.8B in New Housing, Up 6X Record O&D Traffic at DTW

DTW

Sign up for the

CLEO newsletter

Your inbox will love you for it!

Yes please

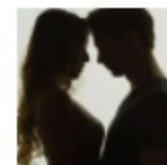

FEATURED VIDEO

Affordable Hair Products For Different Singapore Hair Types

Whether you have fine or frizzy hair, we've got you covered.

TRENDING

How To Do Friends With Benefits The Right Way

10 Workwear Pieces Under $50

Eyeliner Tips To Steal From Local Influencers

5 Things To Do With Face Cream That Isn't Working For You

CLEO Tries: