These cocktails were inspired by some of his favourite paintings. Have a sip and #stircreativity!

PRIMAVERA

23

Citrusy, Fresh, Herbal

Bombay Sapphire Gin | Bitter Orange Marmalade
Grapefruit | Lemon | Herb Syrup | Egg White

One of the most famous Renaissance paintings, the Primavera by Sandro Botticelli, 1480, also known as 'Spring' shows nine mythological figures advancing over a flowery lawn in a grove of orange and laurel trees in celebration of love, peace, and prosperity.

THE SON OF MAN

25

Fizzy, Fresh, Fruity

Aberfeldy 12 Years Single Malt | Pear Liqueur
Clarified Apple & Lemon Juice | Mint | Lavender | Soda

Everyone knows the man in a bowler hat behind that floating apple, created by surrealist painter René Magritte in 1964. "Everything we see hides another thing, we always want to see what is hidden by what we see. There is an interest in that which is hidden and which the visible does not show us." — Magritte

CARGADOR DE FLORES

24

Spirit-Forward, Floral

Grey Goose Vodka | Martini Bianco | Elderflower | Bitters | Purple Cabbage

"The Flower Carrier" painted by Mexican artist Diego Rivera, 1935, depicts a man struggling to get on his feet under the weight of an enormous basket of flowers. You'd wonder why flowers would weigh that much. It is the unseen burden — the oppressive weight of capitalism that weighs on him.
